When applying for Membership please note:

- An Associate Member must be aged 18 years or older and not be eligible for Membership.
- Your 'Proposer' and 'Seconder' must each hold 2 continuous year's membership at the time of application.
- There is an initial joining fee of £20 plus £60 annual subscription, which is reduced to £35 if you are aged 65 or over and there will be no joining fee if you are aged 75 or over.
- Regardless of when Membership commenced the initial joining fee and annual subscription are subject to review at each AGM.
- The issue, completion and return of this form will in no way guarantee Membership, which is at the discretion and invitation of the General Committee.

If elected to Membership:

- You must have proof of address dated within last 60 days (utility bill, bank statement etc).
- The first 2 years are probationary, although the General Committee have the right to withdraw Membership at any time.
- Subscription is due annually on 1st June and must be received by 30th June. Failure to pay the annual subscription in June will result in loss of Membership, and you will need to pay the joining fee again.
